

Berlin, Dresden & Leipzig

From £999 per person // 7 days

Enjoy an exciting holiday by rail, featuring three historic German cities. Discover vibrant capital Berlin as well as Dresden & Leipzig, both once in the former East Germany.

The Essentials

- Return rail travel to Germany with seat reservations
- The fascinating capital Berlin
- Historic Dresden on the River Elbe
- Leipzig, the home of Bach and Mendelssohn

Tailor make your holiday

- Decide when you would like to travel
- Adapt the route to suit your plans
- Upgrade your hotels
- Add extra nights, destinations and/or tours

What's included

- Standard Class rail travel with seat reservations
- 6 nights' handpicked hotel accommodation with breakfast
- Comprehensive directions to your hotels
- Easy-to-follow travel documentation
- Despatch of tickets by email, post or collection from our London office

- Suggested Itinerary -

Day 1 - London To Berlin

Take your seat on the Eurostar this morning and travel under the English Channel to France and then on to Brussels, where you change onto the German high-speed network. You'll arrive in Berlin this evening and check in for a 2-night stay at the Intercity Berlin Hauptbahnhof (or similar).

Day 2 - Berlin

Spend a full day exploring the German capital. Berlin has been at the centre of European history, particularly during the 20th century. You can learn more about the former East Germany at the fascinating DDR Museum or find out about Jewish history at the largest museum of its kind in Europe. In the morning, you have a complimentary walking tour included in your holiday, which gives you an overview of the central Mitte district including the remains of the Berlin Wall, the Reichstag and the Brandenburg Gate.

Days 3 & 4 - Dresden

A rail journey of under 2 hours brings you to Dresden, where you check in for a 2-night stay at the NH Dresden Altmarkt (or similar). Dresden is the capital of the Saxony region of Germany, straddling both banks of the River Elbe. The most famous landmarks here are the imposing Frauenkirche, destroyed during allied bombing in WWII and then rebuilt at the end of the last century, and the lovely Brühl's Terrace overlooking the river.

Days 5 & 6 - Leipzig

Another short rail journey takes you through Saxony to Leipzig, where you check in for a 2-night stay at the Adina Apartment Hotel Leipzig (or similar). Enjoy a full day at leisure in this historic city, which has been an important trade hub since Roman times as well as a centre of publishing and of music. Both J.S. Bach and Felix Mendelssohn lived and worked here.

Day 7 - Leipzig To London

Leave Leipzig after breakfast this morning and make your way back to the station for your service to Brussels via Frankfurt. Once at Brussels Midi station, transfer onto the Eurostar back to London at the end of your exciting holiday.

Pricing

From £999 per person

These prices are based on two people sharing a twin or double room. Single supplements will apply for sole occupancy. It is based on Standard Class rail travel and includes seat reservations as necessary. It is based on the best fares on the trains. If you travel during a peak period, particularly at short notice, then supplements may apply.