All Aboard The British Pullman

Step back in time to the glamorous 1920s when you board the famous British Pullman at London Victoria station. A fine dining experience awaits in your beautifully restored wood-panelled carriage, complete with art deco fixtures and stunning marquetry. Your table is set with starched white linens, specially commissioned china and sparkling cut glassware. Enjoy a glass of Champagne to toast to your journey before heading out of London and into the Kent and Surrey countryside. Your liveried steward will serve you an indulgent five-course lunch as you enjoy a festive day trip to remember!

Onboard Extras

If you're celebrating a special occasion, why not buy a unique gift for your loved one which will be waiting for you when you board the train? Gift options include the iconic Pullman teddy bear, a celebration cake, a hand-tied bunch of flowers or a pair of Pullman Champagne flutes. Just let us know if you would like to add one of these to your package. Prices available on request.

Add London Accommodation To Your Trip

If you are coming down to London from far-afield, we can add hotel accommodation before and after your trip so that you can turn your British Pullman day trip into an exciting city break! We can offer a selection of hotels near to London Victoria station as featured below, including the beautiful Grosvenor Hotel (pictured) which actually has an exit onto the station concourse. Alternatively, you might prefer to stay in a different part of the city, depending on the places you would like to visit – and your departure station back to where you live. Just give us a call and let us help tailor make your trip.

Pricing

From £485 per person

2024 prices from £485pp

These prices are based on the best fares on the British Pullman. Please note that prices increase as the train gets busier, so fares can vary quite substantially depending on the date of departure. If you travel during a peak period, particularly at short notice, then supplements may apply.
