- Suggested Itinerary -

Day 1 - London To Brussels

Catch the Eurostar from London St Pancras station and make the journey to Brussels in just under 2 hours. On arrival, check in for an overnight stay at the Pullman Brussels Midi (or similar). This holiday also includes travel from your local station to London as long as you make your onward Eurostar journey on the same day. Please ask us for details.

Day 2 - Brussels To Hamburg

Return to the station today and board the ICE service for Cologne. A quick change here and you are on your way to Hamburg. On arrival, cross the road and check in for an overnight stay at the Reichshof Hamburg Hotel (or similar). This evening, you can choose to dine out in the city centre, or at the hotel's own restaurant, serving local and international dishes.

Day 3 - Hamburg To Stockholm

After breakfast at the hotel this morning, make your way back to the station and board your train north to Scandinavia. A short change in Copenhagen sees you on the train to Stockholm (pictured), where you check in to the Nordic Light Hotel (or similar) for a 3 night stay.

Days 4 & 5 - Stockholm

The Swedish capital offers an array of attractions, from the colourful streets of Gamla Stan to the natural beauty of the Stockholm archipelago. Choose from around 100 museums, or wander around art galleries including the grand Nationalmuseum and the Museum of Modern Art. Also not to be missed is the Vasa Museum, which houses a 17th century gunship which sank on her maiden voyage out of the city in 1628. TMR RECOMMENDS: Extend your stay in Sweden and travel across to its beautiful western coastline, the focal point of which is the stunning city of Gothenburg.

Day 6 - Stockholm To Copenhagen

After another free morning in Stockholm, make your way back to the station and catch the sleek SJ2000 service back to Copenhagen. You'll arrive in time for dinner so once you've checked in the Hotel Absalon (or similar), where you will be staying for the next 3 nights, why not head for the colourful Nyhavn harbour for a meal in stunning surroundings?

Days 7 & 8 - Copenhagen

Denmark's capital city is a cultural hub and gourmet's dream, boasting more Michelin starred restaurants than any other Scandinavian city. No stay here is complete without a visit to the Little Mermaid, who sits on a rock by Langelinie promenade. But there are plenty of other unmissable sights too, including the lovely Ny Carlsberg Glyptotek gallery and the historic Carlsberg brewery.

Day 9 - Copenhagen To Cologne

Enjoy breakfast at your hotel this morning before checking out and returning to the train station for a return journey down the Jutland Peninsula and via Hamburg, where a quick change sees you on your way back to Cologne. Here, check in for a night at the Mondial am Dom MGallery (or similar) before spending the evening in this historic Rhineland city.

Day 10 - Cologne To London

There's a leisurely start today. You may even have time to visit Cologne's famous cathedral before returning to the station (which is just next door) and boarding a service to Brussels. Here, check in for your return Eurostar back to London.
