Tuesday 17 June - Basel To Belalp

Meet your guide, James Wilson, at the hotel after breakfast and travel on foot or by public transport to the train station to travel to Belalp. You'll stop over in Bern for a guided visit of Switzerland's capital city, offering a rich blend of historical significance and architectural splendour. After the visit, buy some picnic (not included) before hopping onto the next train. Upon reaching the cable car station, your luggage is conveniently transported to the hotel. A picturesque 25-minute stroll along a scenic trail from the Belalp mountain station leads to Hotel Belalp, perched proudly and majestically on the Aletschbord, offering stunning views high above the Aletsch Glacier. The rest of the afternoon is yours to spend at leisure before a welcome drink and dinner are served back at the hotel.

Wednesday 18 June - Belalp To Wengen

After breakfast, stroll back to the cable car while your luggage is transported to the cable car station. Pick up your luggage and continue your journey to the Bernese Oberland via PostAuto and railway. On the way, you'll stop in Brig for a wine tasting accompanied by some local delicacies. If you still feel hungry after the wine tasting, feel free to buy some picnic (not included) for the train ride to Wengen. On arrival, check in at the Hotel Falken for a 2-night stay. Afterward, it's a short walk (approximately 15 minutes) to the gondola station for an ascent to Marbachegg for lunch. Enjoy the panoramic view before descending by gondola and returning to the hotel in Flu?hli. Your holiday also includes your return travel to your local station (as long as you're able to get home the same day – if not, please let us know).

Your Guide - James Wilson

James has worked in the travel industry for over 25 years and has spent the majority of that time doing something involving Switzerland's railways. He moved to Switzerland with his family in 2016 and resides in Wengen where he runs his own company. In his spare time he can be found high up on a mountain somewhere, either skiing in the winter or hiking once the snows have melted. He also dedicates time to supporting the local alpine farmers and is looking forward to introducing guests on this trip to some of them!
