Day 1 - London To Lyon

Head to London St Pancras where you'll begin your luxurious holiday by rail with a journey by Eurostar to Paris. A driver will greet you at the Gare du Nord and take you across to the Gare de Lyon for your onward journey by high-speed TGV. Arrive into Lyon's Part Dieu station in the early evening and check in for an overnight stay at Le Royal Hotel (or similar).

Day 2 - Lyon To Genoa

After breakfast at your hotel, it's time to return to the station for an onward journey south across the Italian border to Milan. Here, change onto an Italian service which will take you to the historic port of Genoa. You have an overnight stop here at the Grand Hotel Savoia (or similar), close to the station. Remember, we can tailor make your holiday. If you'd rather stay in Milan (or add a night here en route to Genoa), please let us know.

Day 3 - Genoa To Florence

Enjoy a free morning in Genoa, with time to visit the historic Old Town, a maze of charming narrow lanes. Visit the stunning San Lorenzo Cathedral and explore the vibrant Piazza de Ferrari. Take a walk down Via Garibaldi, lined with grand Renaissance palaces, then head to the bustling Porto Antico for harbourside views and a coffee with a sea breeze. At lunchtime, after collecting your bags from your hotel, return to the station and take the train down the coast to Pisa, changing here onto a regional service, bound for Florence. Check in here for a 2-night stay at the Hotel Number Nine (or similar).

Day 4 - Florence

Florence, the enchanting capital of Tuscany, has been a thriving hub of art and culture for centuries. Today, it's home to an extraordinary collection of galleries, museums, and historic churches. Dominating the skyline is the magnificent Duomo—an architectural masterpiece. Stroll along the River Arno and take in the iconic Ponte Vecchio, one of the most photographed landmarks in Italy. No trip to Florence is complete without experiencing the world-renowned Uffizi Gallery, located in the heart of the city. Want to skip the queues? We offer convenient skip-the-line ticket bookings—just ask us for details.

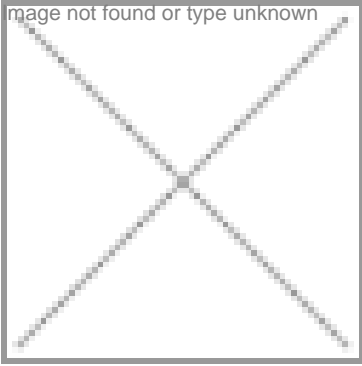

Days 5 & 6 - Rome

Catch a high-speed service to Rome and check in at the Grand Hotel Palace (or similar). Italy's captivating capital is a city where ancient history and modern life coexist in perfect harmony. Once the heart of a vast empire, it's now a treasure trove of world-famous landmarks, elegant piazzas, and timeless charm. Marvel at the grandeur of the Colosseum, toss a coin into the Trevi Fountain, and admire the architectural beauty of the Pantheon. Be sure to stroll across the Tiber River to visit Castel Sant'Angelo and soak up panoramic views of the city.

Day 7 - Depart Aboard La Dolce Vita Orient Express

You'll be transferred this morning from your hotel to Rome Ostiense station where you'll check in for your overnight journey aboard La Dolce Vita Orient Express. Begin with a gourmet lunch on board, crafted by 3-Michelin-starred Chef Heinz Beck and inspired by the finest seasonal ingredients. After lunch, arrive in the picturesque hill town of Montalcino. Stroll its charming streets or, if you wish, opt for a visit to a local winery to taste the celebrated Brunello wines paired with traditional Tuscan fare. As evening sets in, return to the train for a sophisticated dinner, followed by live music and entertainment—an unforgettable end to a day of true Italian luxury.

Day 8 - Return To Rome And Fly Back To The Uk

With the dawn of a new day, wake in your Deluxe Suite to the serene beauty of the Italian countryside. Enjoy a leisurely breakfast, rich with the aromas of fresh coffee and warm pastries. Take in the final moments of comfort and sophistication aboard La Dolce Vita Orient Express before arriving at Rome Ostiense, where your unforgettable journey comes to a graceful close and you transfer to the airport for your flight back to the UK. If you'd rather return to London by train or continue your holiday to other destinations, just let us know.
